

THE MOVING CHECKLIST FOR YOUR BC/AB Possession Date Gap

Get both possession dates in writing.

Your BC sale date and Alberta purchase date, confirmed by your realtor or lawyer (not estimated).

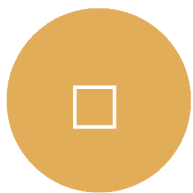

- ❑ Calculate the gap in days. A 3-day gap and a 6-week gap call for very different plans.
- ❑ Sort what travels with you now from what needs to sit in storage until possession clears.
- ❑ Book your long-distance BC/Alberta move as soon as both dates are confirmed. Long-distance scheduling fills up faster than local.

Choose a storage bridge based on gap length.

Short-term or long-term, based on the length of your gap.

- ❑ Confirm liability coverage options with your mover before moving day, in writing.
- ❑ Set a redelivery date for your destination once possession is confirmed.

Hold off on address-dependent changes.

Utilities, mail forwarding, registrations: wait until possession is confirmed. Worth checking with your realtor or lawyer if your closing has any wrinkles.

- ❑ Confirm crew and truck logistics on both ends of the BC/AB corridor.
- ❑ Keep both possession date documents in one folder you carry with you on moving day.
